'Riders' Slated to Visit L.R. Station Tonight

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Five so-called freedom riders plan to arrive here by bus at 7:45 p. m. tonight and stay here overnight. A spokesman for the Committee On Racial Equality said Sunday in St. Louis.

The three Negroes and two white persons were scheduled to leave St. Louis by Trailways bus at 9:30 a. m. (CST). The bus was to arrive at Little Rock's Midwest Trailways station, where there are white and Negro waiting rooms and no lunch counters.

The riders did not say where they plan to stay here.

The five are: the Rev. B. Elton Cox, 30, of St. Louis, field secretary for CORE, a Negro; Miss Ann Malone, 23, St. Louis Negro; Annie Lumpkin, 18, St. Louis Negro; Mrs. Janet Reintz, 23, New York City white; and the Rev. John C. Raines, 27, Setauket, N. Y., white.

They said they plan to go to Little Rock Shreveport, La., and New Orleans by bus and return to St. Louis by train. Facilities provided by both the Trailways Bus Co. and the Illinois Central Railroad will be tested, a CORE spokesman said.

Little Rock police said they had been informed of the "freedom ride." Officers always are present in the Midwest station area at night. Extra officers were expected to be present tonight.

Negroes have used white bus waiting rooms and lunch counters here quietly and infrequently in the past.

Trailways said it had a bus leaving for Shreveport at 8 a. m. Tuesday. Other buses leaving here for Shreveport, are: via Texarkana, at 9:20 p. m. tonight; via Texarkana at 12:05 a. m. Tuesday.

The group said its plans call for a return trip through Mississippi, Tennessee and Illinois by train.

Suit Filed to Protect the 'Riders'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A suit to prevent police from arresting "Freedom Riders" and other Negroes seeking to use public facilities in Mississippi headed for a federal court test at Jackson today as the number of riders arrested soared to 227.

A three-judge federal court planned to hear the injunction request filed by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The suit attacked what it called unconstitutional state laws requiring segregated railroad cars, buses, rest room and waiting room mand the pointing to segregation signs at terminals.

Such laws, the suit contended, subject Negroes to "daily public inconvenience, harassment, and embarrassment" and violate rights secured "by the due process clause of the 14th amendment to the U.S. Constitution."

Nine riders from New Orleans and eight from Montgomery, Ala., were arrested Sunday when they tried unsuccessfully to desegregate terminal waiting rooms.

Faubus and ALC Goes Into Huddle

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus goes into a huddle with key members of the Legislative Council Tuesday to talk about how the council will call signals on the special legislative session on finance.

A weekend poll showed council members approve of the legislature's out-of-session arm taking over the emergency money problem. But they feel that the council should put off working with college needs and concern itself with reallocating money in the unconstitutional omnibus construction act.

The council members agreed that they should make a study of the $11.7 million surplus fund and decide where the money can best be spent.

Pulaski Rep. Glenn Walther has proposed a four-point plan for meeting the state's building problems. This includes study of building needs, recommendations on how the legislature should spend the 11.5 million, creating revenues to the construction fund and shutting extra horse race revenues to the construction fund.

He also suggests a $30 million construction bond issue if the college and institutions can prove their need through contractors' estimates, blueprints, etc. He said the bond plan should include "all the safeguards the other one lacked."

The Legislative Council may be called into session at the end of this month to begin getting ready recommendations on how the legislature should handle the building and finance problem. Faubus must call a special session, but he has not said when the session will be.

The Arkansas Association for Retarded Children has called a meeting for Sunday to discuss the financial situation at the Arkansas Children's Colony, one of the institutions which would have gotten money from both the omnibus law and the governor's defeated $60 million bond issue.

Construction at the colony has halted since April 1 when funds allocated to pay for the work became tied up in the omnibus bill suit. There are 320 children in the colony, and more than 1,500 others are on a waiting list.

Some members of the Legislative Council said in the poll, taken by a Little Rock newspaper, that Council members should be allowed to make recommendations on college building, but they didn't feel that this problem should be part of the immediate council agenda.

Prescott School Custodian Dies

John Miller, 61, custodian of Prescott High School, died Saturday. Survivors include his wife, a son and three daughters. Burial was Sunday in DeAnn Cemetery.

HOPE STAR HAS PURCHASED A MAJOR DOWNTOWN property with spur track it was announced today by Mrs. C. E. Palmer and Alex. H. Washburn, co-owners.

THE PROPERTY WAS BOUGHT FROM MR. AND MRS. J. M. Harbin of Hope. It is situated at the intersection of East Division and South Hazel Sts., opposite the W. Shanhouse Sons, Inc., plant.

VACANT EXCEPT FOR AN OLD LUMBER WAREHOUSE the site measures 150 feet on Division St. and 134 feet on Hazel St. with a Missouri Pacific spur track on the south boundary. The sale was made by Vincent W. Foster of Foster Land & Realty Co. and Attorney James H. Pilkinton handled the transaction for the newspaper.

HOPE STAR BOUGHT ITS PRESENT LOCATION IN 1932, tore down the building and put up a modern air-conditioned newspaper home in 1955.

PUBLISHER WASHBURN SAID: "WHILE WE HAVE NO commitments other than this real estate investment the technological changes now underway in newspaper production will require a larger building in the future — and Mrs. Palmer and I were attracted by the spur trackage and unlimited parking space which the new property makes available in the heart of the city."

FOR THE PRESENT THE NEW PROPERTY WILL BE maintained as a public parking lot, and probably half of it would be available for parking around a new newspaper building, he said.

Series of Accidents Reported

City police reported a series of auto accidents over the weekend, and one burglary.

The truck driver was Solomon Scawood of Memphis. Harold Buchler, 13, a passenger, suffered facial cuts and bruises, according to Officers Moses and Ward.

Mrs. Comer Boyett's car parked downtown Saturday was scraped by a pickup truck parked alongside. Officers Ward and Moses said the unidentified truck driver failed to wait and did not report the incident.

Sunday at the Washington St. railway crossing cars driven by Aubrey Hatfield and Kenneth Huckabee collided with minor damage resulting, reported Officers Willis and Ward.

Lion Scare Again At Russellville

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The so-called lion which scared Johnson County residents and prompted a full-scale lion hunt in April was seen again Saturday. Deputy Sheriff Duane Steele said Mrs. Elsie Glentzer of the Spring Hill Community, 10 miles west of here, told him the animal ran across the road in front of her car, carrying something in its mouth. That was the area in which the lion was seen several times in April.

Ship Death Toll Placed Over 250

LOURNCO MARQUES, Mozambique (AP)—The Portuguese Maritime Ministry announced today 237 persons are dead or missing and presumed dead from the grounded and burning Portuguese ship Save. Most were African Negro passengers.

The 2,037-ton transport was swept onto a sandbar in a storm Saturday in the Mozambique Channel, off Southeast Africa, and a series of explosions ripped the hull and engulfed her in flames.

The ministry said there were 490 persons aboard the ship, including a 44-man (correct) crew, and that 253 were saved, some of them suffering injuries.

Estimates of the total aboard previously had ranged above 500. Some of the passengers were troops, others were mine laborers.

The disaster struck near the Linde River estuary of northern Mozambique.

It was thought many of the missing swam safely ashore but landed at various points and would be hard to round up.

The Portuguese army still had not issued an announcement giving any official information.

Helicopters were ferrying the injured and other survivors to Beira and Lourenco Marques. Light aircraft were trying to land on the beach at low tide, and small boats were searching the area for survivors.

Rescue parties also were making their way overland to the isolated area.

The Save, named for a river in Mozambique, had sailed from Lourenco Marques with troops, laborers and military supplies for camps at northern ports in the sprawling East African colony.

U.S. Accuses Russia of Placing World Into a Long-Term Crisis

Russia Puts on Display of Military Might

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union showed off its air might Sunday in a dazzling display that struck Western diplomats as a gesture designed to strengthen Kremlin demands on Berlin.

Premier Khrushchev and Cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin watched side by side along with a crowd of 50,000 while the Soviet air force paraded a spectacular array of new craft at Moscow's Tushino Airfield.

Western experts watching the show — first the Soviets have staged since 1953—said the United States has nothing to match several of the entries, including a jet fighter that can light up a liquid rocket engine booster in flight to gain a tremendous rate of climb.

The most spectacular attraction shown publicly for the first time was a delta wing bomber the announcer said had a speed several times that of sound. The plane looked bigger than the eight-engine U.S. B52 and had four jets, two on the wing tips and two inboard below the wings.

Western air attaches showed keen interest in a flypast of 10 heavy supersonic bombers which also made their first public appearance. This new model's two engines were mounted on the rear atop the long, slender fuselage. It had high swept wings and was comparable in size to the U.S. B58, whose publicly admitted speed is 1,500 miles per hour.

Western observers said the show made clear the Soviets are not pinning all their faith on long-range missiles alone.

The fighters carried air-to-air rockets instead of conventional cannon. The new bombers were armed with air-to-surface missiles instead of bombs.

The Soviets gave advance billing to a vertical takeoff plane that does not depend on a jet thrust to get it aloft. Called a "screw wing plane" it was a cross between a plane and a helicopter.

Two engines were mounted at two rotors atop each wing making it highly maneuverable and able to carry either troops or freight.

Another new model was a three-tail jet-powered helicopter that rockets.

One novelty was a giant helicopter capable of hauling 100 men. It appeared carrying a wooden house under its belly and landed it on the field. The house was about the size of a large car trailer in the United States.

The Soviets spiced up their show with a flypast of 15 helicopters each carrying a trapeze on which sat a pretty girl each dressed in the national costume of one of the 15 Soviet republics.

Another crowd-pleasing feature was a mass drop of 600 men with brightly colored parachutes.

Air Marshal Konstantin Verzhinin who directed the show said in an aviation day article in the Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda that many of the Soviet air force's jets have no equal in the world for speed, altitude and flight range.

James E. Lowder

F. R. Oliver, Highway Director, has announced the promotion of James Elbert Lowder from acting district engineer to district engineer of the Hope District.

A native of Jesselville, he has a degree in civil engineering from the U of A and is a Registered Professional Engineer. He joined the Highway Dept. in 1951. He is married to the former Ethel Hicks of Hot Springs and they have two children.

Axis Sally Now Free From Prison

ALDERSON, W. VA.—(AP)—Axis Sally obtains her freedom today, a graying wisp of the trim, silvery-blond woman she was when she entered the federal reformatory 12 years ago.

Sally, now 60 and whose real name is Mildred Gillars, was paroled from a 10 to 30 year sentence for treason—a sentence handed her for propaganda broadcasts she made from Germany during World War II.

At her trial in Washington D.C. in 1949 she blamed love for her troubles. Frustration played a part, too.

Born in Maine on Thanksgiving Day, 1900, she grew up dreaming of acclaim on the Broadway stage. She went to New York, took a Greenwich Village apartment and worked at her career.

But success never came, and she went abroad, North Africa, Italy, France, Hungary, then Germany. This was just before Hitler's troops started their march down what was to be a road to destruction.

It was in Dresden Germany, that she met an officer in the German foreign service who had once been a teacher at Hunter College in New York City. She fell in love, she said.

Miss Gillars testified at her trial that the man—the late Max Otto Koischwitz—convinced her she should make the broadcasts.

She claimed he wrote and directed the scripts that she read over the radio.

Prison officials say Axis Sally now wants to teach music in a convent.

Reds Impose Coercion Upon Rest of World

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk today accused the Soviets of plunging the globe into a long-term crisis by seeking to "impose a world of coercion" upon all others.

Rusk said: "The underlying crisis of our generation arises from the fact that the Soviet Union did not join the United Nations in fact as well as in form, and lend itself to the peaceful commitments they and the rest of us made in the midst of a great war."

"The possession of power was transformed once more to ambition for more power."

Rusk laid the blame for post-war international tensions on the Kremlin in speech prepared for a National Press Club luncheon.

The secretary of state had conferred with President Kennedy over the weekend and again today amid a mounting feeling of disappointment within the Kennedy administration at what it regards as an uncompromisingly tough line being pressed by Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

At the same time, Rusk said the United States "can move on with confidence if we are prepared to do what has to be done."

He said Kennedy is moving to strengthen "the free world's capability" to meet "the variety of dangers which have to be confronted."

He called for building a world community as designed by the U.N. charter, strengthening of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and passage of Kennedy's massive foreign aid program now before Congress.

Gina Walks Out on Talk by Mr. K.

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—Gina Lombardiga says she meant no snub by walking out on Premier Khrushchev at the opening of the Moscow Film Festival. She just wanted to take a bath.

But the Soviet leader and other Communist bigwigs stared at the Italian film star stalked out of Moscow's Lenin Stadium Sunday night just when the show was warming up.

Gina, who had been rushed to the stadium direct from the airport, said the whole thing apparently was a misunderstanding. "I wasn't angry, just upset," she told reporters later in her hotel room (after taking a bath). "I was very sure they would understand when I left."

As for Khrushchev, Gina said: "I had the pleasure to see Khrushchev. This is something exciting, even from far away."

Though one of the top foreign attractions here for the festival, Gina had only a third-row seat in the audience.

Gina looked lovely—but hardly dressed like glamorous actresses usually do for gala public appearances. She wore a tall blue straw hat and two-piece blue traveling suit.

In her own words, "I looked like a gypsy."

American film producer William Perlberg, who sat nearby, said she was "sore as hell" about not being given a chance to take a bath, make up or change her clothes before being taken to the festival.

Those reckless drivers in the road today, but they were driving something that had more sense than they did.

SUSPENSE SETTE

A Short Short Story

THE TRAP
By J. HARVEY BOND

When Alexander Bolworth set his trap, he wondered what kind of a thief he was going to catch. Not an ordinary one. He'd bet on that.

An ordinary criminal would not bother with the kind of loot to be obtained in Bolworth's tidy little office. He kept no large sums of money, no valuables of any kind. He had valuable information, but it was the kind that only a man with a great deal of education would understand.

Alexander Bolworth was a chemical engineer engaged in research so far advanced that no one was quite sure his work could be applied successfully. He had been disturbed, he had taken great pains to lock them away in a vault which could not be opened except with explosives of the right combination. But the extraordinary burglar had continued his visits.

Now Bolworth waited, concealed by a screen in the corner of his office, hoping to catch the thief red-handed.

He heard the metallic sound of a key being inserted steadily in the lock of the door. There was a click and the door opened. A shoe scraped on the floor. The sound of the intruder's breathing came to Bolworth's ears.

The darkness gave way to the glow of a flashlight and he heard a drawer slide open. Then Bolworth turned the switch of an extension cord behind the screen. Instantly a light on a bookcase illuminated the scene and Bolworth stepped into view, holding a small pistol in his hand.

Standing in front of the open drawer of the desk stood Stephen

DOROTHY DIX

The Answer to Loneliness

BY HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Can the heart of a human appear white and pure as the driven snow yet in truth be black and evil as the devil's own? I ask this question because of the actions of my two oldest girls (I have six children in all, age 12 and 15. The elder hurts me many times by her harsh words and rebellious attitude toward chores. The younger is polite, well-mannered and methodical.

Until today I thought her the tender-hearted and her sister the hard one. Now I know this younger girl for the first time and the shock is almost more than I can take. You're the only one to whom I feel free to turn. Help me! —M.H.

Dear M.H.: Yes, a distressing number of people do suffer from split personalities. The psychiatric term is schizophrenia. Robert Louis Stevenson's novel, "The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" is based on this theme: Dr. Jekyll being the one who would do good, Hyde nothing but evil. Both personalities were embodied in the same man. From what you say, your child evidently has a split personality. In the past, little could be done for such a case; today, thanks to enlightened science, there is real hope of changing the pattern. Be thankful your little girl is only 12. Were she older it might be too late. Ask your doctor, or the head of the neighborhood clinic to recommend a competent brain specialist. And reread the Biblical parable of the Lost Sheep (Matthew 23, 12-14). Your child needs all the love and understanding you can give her.

Yes, I know.

"A few compounds in a tiny space can do more work than acres of electronic machinery. Its only a step or two until man will be making chemical compounds which will do things too complex for even the human mind to accomplish!"

"For a thief, you're not acting repentant," said Bolworth.

"I'm glad for you," said Hollyhock. "Of course I am a thief. I really did plan to steal your secrets and to cash in on them myself. But that was only human frailty. The weakness of greed, mixed perhaps with envy. To realize the whole magnitude of your achievement makes me forget all this."

"You have no pangs of conscience? You don't feel contrite?"

"Oh come, Bolworth, we're adults," Hollyhock laughed gently. "Are you going to call the police? Or shall we—forget?" He watched Bolworth eagerly.

"Go," said Bolworth. After Hollyhock was gone, Bolworth opened the vault, took his precious notes from the shelves inside and built a little fire with them.

As he watched them burn, he shook his head. "If man, the greatest and most complex of living creatures on this earth, has weaknesses," he said, "it would be foolhardy to construct an artificial thinking machine which could do greater things and harbor greater weaknesses."

THE END

are her friends and family right in coming between us? She's afraid of being disowned if she marries me. —Heartbroken Christian

Dear Christian: I'm afraid it's your irresponsible past, not the disapproval of your girl's family and friends, which is the real root of the trouble. She's old enough to know her own mind and, if she truly loved you, wouldn't let anything come between you. Accept this setback as a challenge. Continue to prove by your steady ways and ability to hold down a good job that you have indeed reformed. Start by making her mother an ally, instead of an enemy. Send her an occasional pot of flowers or the latest book. Keep in touch with your girl too and, before you know it, they'll be putting out the welcome mat for you.

Dear Helen: There are so many complaining daughters — in - law! Why? My mother-in-law is a wonderful person. In all my 28 years of marriage we've never had one cross word. I say it takes two to tango —Mrs. D. Boston, Mass.

Dear Mrs. D.: In families as in politics, the strongest dominates. Usually it is the mother, especially in the relationship with her sons. She remains in control even after they are grown, provided she leads them where they wish to go, but once they get the idea (usually promoted by a daughter-in-law) that she drives, instead of leads, her power is gone and the daughter-in-law takes over. This is what the mother fears, hence her instinctive antagonism. Granted there are exceptions, as in your case, but in most cases, it is the struggle for power which causes the trouble. The wise mother knows when to step back and give her daughter-in-law a chance.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Mother Complex."

Kennedy Has Erred Says NAACP Chief

By LEE LINDER
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says President Kennedy "has made an error" in failing to prod Congress for new civil rights legislation.

But the secretary, Roy Wilkins, insisted he wasn't quarreling with the Kennedy administration, nor castigating it for the President "has done fine in appointment of Negroes to high offices" and eliminating segregation policies in plants that do business with the government.

"But we need more law immediately, not only action under existing laws," Wilkins told a news conference Sunday on the eve of the NAACP's 52nd annual convention. It opens a week of sessions tonight with some 1,200 delegates representing nearly 389,000 members in 45 states.

The NAACP, in a 72-page report issued at New York, credited efforts by its members in 1960 as responsible for many victories against discrimination.

"The civil rights victory is just around the corner," the report said.

Wilkins echoed that view, pointing out "the NAACP has created nationwide opinion that has made segregation dead. But there is no doubt that segregation practices will continue and we will continue to fight them."

He praised the "Freedom Riders" in the South, saying their actions have awakened the conscience in the North who have thought that segregation is really over. "It has jolted the North," he said.

Wilkins, however, declined to say whether NAACP members should join the rider project sponsored by the Congress on Racial Equality.

"We have other things to do," he said, such as ensuring the right to vote to every Negro, making housing available to anyone anywhere, eliminating all racial discrimination "where it is imposed by government and this occurs in the North as well as the South."

President Has a Busy Schedule

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — President Kennedy, who mixed work with rest and relaxation during his second straight weekend on Cape Cod, flies back to Washington today to face a busy schedule.

On his return to the White House he confers with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other State Department officials on the state visit of Mohamed Ayub Khan, president of Pakistan, who arrives in Washington Tuesday.

Then at noon, Kennedy meets with 30 business executives on citizen support for his proposed foreign aid program. The businessmen are representatives of the newly-formed Citizens' Committee for International Development.

The committee, headed by Warren Lee Pierson, chairman of the executive committee of Trans World Airlines, was organized to work for Kennedy's foreign aid proposals now pending in Congress.

President and Mrs. Kennedy attracted two big crowds to St. Francis Xavier Church in Hyannis Sunday. One crowd showed up for the Mass they were expected to attend, the other for the service they actually attended, an hour later.

The Kennedys spent the rest of the day taking it easy at their Hyannis port home overlooking Nantucket Sound.

Saturday was the President's Hyannis Port work day. He spent nearly five hours discussing the problems of Germany and Berlin, and the situation in Southeast Asia, with three top advisors.

Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the President's military representative,

This Record Has Proved Expensive

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP)—When is a record not always a record? Answer: When it's the Congressional Record.

The Congressional Record is the bible of Capitol Hill, as it is for many citizens who make it their business to keep up with what Congress is doing.

Yet this daily journal of what is said and done in both houses is not an exact transcript at all times. The reason is contained in three words — "revise and extend."

Representatives who rise to address the House invariably precede their remarks with this sentence: "I ask unanimous consent to revise and extend my remarks." The unanimous consent is always given. And the formula gives the speaker the right to edit what he says, as taken down by the official shorthand reporters. He may change a word, add a sentence or a paragraph, leave out a section.

Senators have the same right, although they do not often use the revise and extend formula on the floor.

When the record appears the next day, it carries the changed version, not the exact words that were said on the floor, if the member has exercised his revise and extend privilege.

It is impossible for a reader to tell that something has been changed, left out or added.

Some senators and representatives don't think this is right. They argue that the Congressional Record should be an exact public record available to all without any monkeying with the script.

One of these is Rep. Paul C. Jones, D-Mo., who also objects to the high cost of producing the Record. He said recently that "a survey he made showed 'we could save about $1 million of expense by limiting the kind of extraneous things printed in the Record's appendix, such as the winning essay in a high school contest.'"

The Record varies in length each day depending on how much activity there is in Congress.

It costs an estimated average of $81 a page to produce. From Jan. 3 through June 30 of this year, the Record totaled 16,098 pages, including 4,998 pages of appendix. At $81 a page, this comes to $1,303,338. The budget for fiscal year 1962 which started July 1, estimated the Record would run to 22,000 pages at a cost of $1.8 million.

U.S. Looking Again at Defenses

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, noting that the Soviet Union intends to increase military spending, announced today the United States is taking another look at its defense program.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev announced in Moscow last week that the Soviet Union has suspended plans to cut Soviet armed forces by more than one million men in view of the world situation.

McNamara said that "the simplest precaution calls for still another examination of our defense posture." He added:

"Currently we are as strong—if not stronger—than any potential aggressor."

"But in the face of the inescapable realities that confront us, such as threats to dispossess us of our rightful presence in Berlin, we can do no less than re-examine our needs. This we are doing."

McNamara's statement gave no indication of what new steps the Kennedy Administration might take to bolster defenses.

Tigers Regain Loop Lead Over the Yankees

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Acc right-hander Frank Lary pitched a three-hit shutout in the opener and the Detroit Tigers swept a doubleheader from the Los Angeles Angels 1-0 and 6-3 Sunday, regaining the American League lead by one percentage point over New York.

The Yankees split with Boston, winning the first game 3-0 behind the five-hit pitching of Roland Sheldon before losing 9-6.

Baltimore gained control of third place, seven games behind, by whipping Kansas City 3-0 on Steve Barber's four-hitter. Cleveland dropped to fourth when the Chicago White Sox thumped the Indians twice, 7-5 and 9-8. Minnesota beat the Senators 7-1.

In the National, Cincinnati clubbed Los Angeles 14-3, for a five-game huge over the second-place Dodgers. Pittsburgh defeated Milwaukee 5-4. San Francisco lost the doubleheader opener 6-3 to St. Louis, then beat the Cards 6-1. The Chicago Cubs swept two from Philadelphia 9-0 and 8-3, with the second game called after eight innings because of darkness in lightless Wrigley Field.

Lary (13-4) walked just two and struck out 10. The Tigers handed Eli Grba (5-9) his fifth loss in a row with a second-inning run when Norm Cash walked. Steve Boros was hit by a pitch and Mike Roarke singled. Boros, felled by a pitch that struck his helmet, spent Sunday night under observation in a hospital.

Detroit wrapped up the nightcap on a two-run homer by Billy Bruton in the seventh inning. Jim Bunning (9-6) won it with ninth-inning relief help. Ryne Duren (3-9) was the loser.

Sheldon, (6-2), allowed Boston nothing but singles. He walked no one and struck out seven for his sixth straight victory and second shutout in a row. Elston Howard doubled home the first run off loser Bill Monbouquette (3-7), who also gave up Roger Maris' 33rd home run.

The Red Sox broke loose for 13 hits in the nightcap. Two earned runs in the first inning tagged the loss on Ralph Terry (5-1). Rookie Don Schwall (7-2) was the winner, with relief help from Arnie Earley.

Barber (10-6) collected his fourth shutout of the season—lops in the majors—for the Orioles. The Birds beat Bob Shaw (5-9) in the first inning when Jackie Brandt's triple followed a double by Brooks Robinson.

A pinch-hit bases-loaded homer by Sherm Lollar with two out in the ninth won the first game for the White Sox and beat reliever Frank Funk (9-7). Willie Kirkland hit three home runs for Cleveland, but J. C. Martin's two-run homer in the seventh inning provided Chicago's edge in the nightcap as Cal McLish (3-8) defeated Jim Perry (7-7). Ray Herbert (7-8) was the first game winner.

Earl Batley belted two home runs and Ted Lepcio one as the Twins won their first at Griffith Stadium in six tries. Camilo Pascual (7-11) was the winner. Tom Cheney (1-1) lost it.

All-Stars at Birmingham

Travelers Get Split in Two Games

By VERNON BUTLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

The hottest pitcher in the Southern Association won't be around tonight when the All-Stars meet Birmingham because big John Bozzer didn't make the team.

Bozzer ought to demand a recheck of the votes. The 6-foot-3, 215-pound Chattanooga right-hander hasn't lost since Macon beat him June 1. He's made seven starts since, all route-going jobs, all victories and four of them shutouts. He adjusted his season record to 11-4 Sunday when his five-hitter restored Chattanooga to the league lead as the Lookouts clubbed Little Rock for a double header split. Little Rock took the opener 7-6, a decision disputed furiously but vainly by the Lookouts.

Atlanta knocked Birmingham out of first place 8-3, completing a three-game series sweep over the Barons and leaving them slightly red-faced for their role as hosts to the All-Stars. Shreveport rallied in both games to sweep Nashville 9-7 and 4-2. Macon and Mobile were rained out after playing three scoreless innings at Mobile.

Little Rock scored the winning run in the eighth inning if the opener when Eddie Richardson's single played Dave Nicholson. The big Baltimore bunter baby barreled into Chattanooga catcher Dick Teed, but Teed held the ball. Umpire Don Fisher called Nicholson safe. Infuriated, Teed hurled his mitt into the stands and rushed for the arbir. Manager Frank Lucchesi intervened.

Palmer and Gary Player of South Africa, the reigning United States Masters' champion, are favorites in a field of 363 golfers from 19 countries. Fifteen of the entries are from the United States. Most experts think this year's British Open will develop into a battle between these two.

U.S. Track Team Heads for Moscow

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) —The U.S. track team heads for Moscow tonight for its meet against the Russians next weekend amid demands for a congressional investigation into the trip.

The controversy started when nine athletes who made the team in tryouts declined invitations by the AAU to make the trip to Moscow and subsequent meets in West Germany, England and Poland. Some said they were willing to go to Russia only. But the AAU turned them down.

Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) called for a congressional inquiry into the AAU's handling of the affair. He suggested that chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee look into the matter before the State Department had advanced the AAU $92,132.50 for expenses.

"We all know that the Russians use these athletic events for propaganda purposes," Sen. Engle said in a letter to Fulbright. "It seems to me that it is very bad business for our government to help finance a trip to Moscow if we are not sending the strongest team we can put on the field."

Jim Simms, secretary-treasurer of the AAU, answered the charges. "It is not a grant from the State Department," he said. "It is a loan and we have paid them back 100 cents on every dollar in the past. We simply do not have enough money in our treasury to finance something like this. We would welcome an investigation."

"Ever since we started sending athletic teams into Russia in 1953 we have received money from the state department."

The nine athletes who refused to make the tour include shotputters Parry O'Brien and Dallas Long, discus throwers Rink Babka and Al Oerter, hammer throwers accepted his irate catcher but later became so angry that he sat down in front of the plate and refused to budge.

He had to arise, finally, however, to see about several of his players who irritated the umpire by hurling their batting helmets onto the field.

Lucchesi, Teed and pitcher Al Neiger were banished. The ruckus, all oratorical, consumed about 15 minutes.

All-Star Game Is Scheduled for Tuesday

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The National League was cheered today by the news that Eddie Mathews, Milwaukee's hard hitting third baseman, would be available for duty against the American League in Tuesday's 30th All-Star game, second in California and first in San Francisco.

It was feared that Mathews, the senior circuit's premier southpaw slugger, might be forced to pass up the spectacle because of a knee injury sustained in a collision with Los Angeles' Daryl Spencer last week. The big Californian returned to the Braves' lineup Sunday and assured NL Manager Danny Mortlaugh he would be ready to play.

A capacity crowd of more than 42,000 was expected to attend the first of this year's two All-Star games, which will be televised nationally. The second game will be played July 31 in Boston.

San Francisco fans were awaiting their first look at the American League sluggers, especially Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris, the New York Yankees' home run twins.

It is mainly because of Maris (43 home runs), Mantle (29), and Detroit's Rocky Colavito (22) and Norm Cash (24), and the virtual certainty that Whitey Ford, New York's brilliant southpaw, will pitch the first three innings that the American League has been made a 6 to 5 favorite. The AL was soundly beaten in both games last year and lost nine of the last 13 although it holds an over-all 16-13 edge.

Maris Cash, Yankee shortstop Tony Kubek and the switch-hitting Mantle, will bat from the left side of the plate. Consequently, it is believed that Mortlaugh might open with southpaw Sandy Koufax, who has won 11 of 16 for the Dodgers. Ford won his 10th straight Saturday and owns a phenomenal 16-2 record.

Mortlaugh can turn to two other left handed starters, Mike McCormick of the Giants or Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's amazing 40-year-old, who has appeared in six previous games. It is highly possible he might surprise by starting Joey Jay, who registered his 12th victory for Cincinnati Sunday.

Hal Connolly and Al Hall, javelin thrower Bill Alley, pole vaulter Ron Morris and quarter-miler Otis Davis.

Pinky Sober, head of the AAU Track and Field Committee, said he wasn't annoyed at the stay-at-homes.

"We appreciate that some of our older competitors have personal problems that make it difficult for them to go on trips and don't blame them at all for staying home," he said.

The party includes 31 men (10 already are in Europe), 17 girls, 4 coaches 4 manager, a trainer, 1 doctor and 7, so plus Sober.

Robinson Big Gun in the National

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Frank Robinson was knocked down twice and hit on the arm by Los Angeles right-hander Don Drysdale, but clubbed a pair of homers, a double and a single for seven runs batted in as the Cincinnati Reds whipped the second place Dodgers 14-3 Sunday and regained a five-game bulge in the National League race.

Third place Pittsburgh made it three straight over Milwaukee, by beating the Braves 5-4. San Francisco split a pair with St. Louis, the Giants losing 6-3, in the opener, before beating the Cards 6-1. The Chicago Cubs swept a doubleheader from Philadelphia 9-8 and 8-5.

In the American, Detroit took two from Los Angeles, 1-0 and 6-3, and regained first place by one percentage point over New York. The Yankees split with Boston, winning 3-0 before losing 9-6. Baltimore thumped Kansas City 8-0; the Chicago White Sox swept Cleveland 7-5 and 9-8, and Minnesota defeated Washington 7-1.

Robinson hit the first of his homers against the Dodgers in the first inning off loser Roger Craig. He run-in with Drysdale came in the sixth, and he then tagged Dick Farrell for his second homer, in the eighth inning.

Gene Freese also homered while right hander Joey Jay (12-4) checked the Dodgers on five hits, two of them home runs by John Roseboro and Charlie Neal.

A pair of homers by Walt Moryn drove in the Pirates' first three runs against Lew Burdette (9-6). Al McBean (2-0) was the winner in relief.

The Cards wiped out a 3-1 lead by the Giants and won the opener on a two-run homer in the eighth by Ken Boyer. But the Giants bounced back behind the four-hit pitching of Jack Sanford (4-5) and reliever Sam Jones in the nightcap. Lindy McDaniel (5-3) won the opener and Juan Marichal (6-7) lost it, both in relief.

The Cubs overcame seven errors with 20 hits in their sweep over the last place Phils. Ed Bouchee, hit two home runs and Al Heist one backing Glen Hobbie (6-9) in the opener and reliever

Sports Can Now Make Trouble

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Shreveport isn't likely to challenge for the Southern Association pennant this season, but the Sports certainly have the punch to make trouble for anybody.

They threw hitting haymakers at Nashville last night in a 13-4 runaway that left the Vols with a string of three straight losses and a seventh-place residence in the standings. Nashville tumbled below the idle Macon Peaches into the notch next to the basement.

Atlanta threw the pennant scramble into a knot by outlasting the Birmingham Barons 7-6. The loss dropped Birmingham into a tie for the league lead with Chattanooga. The Lookouts were rained out at Little Rock and Macon was idled by rain at Mobile.

U.S. Cotton Acres Reach 16.5 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Agriculture Department today estimated this year's cotton acreage at 16,561,000 acres, or 3 per cent more than last year.

This estimate compares with the 10-year (1950-59) average of 20,500,000 acres.

The department made no forecast on production. But should the acre yield equal that of the last two crops production would be about 4,200,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight. Production was 14,272,000 bales last year and 13,710,000 for the 10-year average.

The first official estimate of production will be given Aug. 8. The crop will be supplemented by an estimated 7.5 million bales accumulated from past crops.

The 1961 crop planted acreage and the % share acreage represents of the 1960 crop plantings, respectively, by states included:

Tennessee 540,000 or 103; Mississippi 1,075,000 or 106; Missouri 400,000 or 95; Arkansas 1,410,000 or 103; Louisiana 4,850 or 111; Oklahoma 72,000 or 110; Texas 70,000 or 14.

Dick Ellsworth (4-6) in the second game. Art Mahaffey (7-10) and Chris Short (2-6) were the losers.
